

HOMELESS

BIBLE

By Alvin Roy Sutanto

LOGLINE: An ancient God is reincarnated as a homeless man with healing powers.

OVERVIEW: Set in a modern world where ancient deities and gods live among humans, hidden in plain sight. Each deity has its unique powers and changes form depending on the culture and era they are worshipped in. The series focuses on a beggar deity, inspired by Li Tieguai, who secretly helps those in need, violating the celestial rules.

Based on a Chinese Folklore of Li Tieguai, a mythological figure that is an immortal god/deity who helps the poor, sick and needy. He is often depicted as a disheveled beggar who is often drunk and fights for the oppressed as well as heals the sick. Here we retell the story in a modern setting with a diverse cast and characters to internationalize the story by combining different mythologies and stories from different cultures. The entire series will be stories about how the beggar who turns out to be an ancient deity/God is helping people around him with his powers which he is not supposed to do.

The series will establish the world of deities/gods where they exist among us living as immortals throughout the ages as different Deities/gods in different culture. In biblical terms they are simply angels. Each Deity/God has his/her own powers and throughout the series, their appearance and gender. Changes according to the culture or people they are being worshipped by in each era. Each Deity/God will be played by different actors/actresses depending on the era and culture they are at. By the end of the season, a permanent antagonist will be established in the form of a serial killer with a multiple personality disorder who is possessed by many demons known as Legion (of Demons)-consisting of Achlys/BaliRaj/chort/djall/yaoguai/naberius/draugr. Charles has no supernatural powers, but the different personalities/demons are fighting for control over the body. Charles/Legion is trying to transfer the demon souls onto a God/Deity reincarnation so that the demons can gain powers and have a body of their own. The following seasons will introduce other 'Demons/malevolent gods' who are the "victims" of Kane where they were once an incarnation of a God/Deity is now possessed by one of the Demons/Malevolent Gods that was once trapped within Charles Kane's body. They are major rule breakers, and they are here to cause chaos. The 'Demons/malevolent gods' are immortals that has regained their powers after possessing the body of a God/Deity. And in the final season, many different Deities/Gods as well as 'Demons/Malevolent Gods' who are living among the humans starts to expose themselves to the world and they are preparing to go to war with each other to bring about the second coming of the 'one'. So, in contrast between the Gods/Deities and Charles Kane's character is that each of the Gods/Deities are played by different actors and actresses playing the same character while Charles Kane is a single actor playing multiple characters trapped in his body.
